.....RESPONDENTS

Counsel for the Appellant: GP FOR LAND ACQUISITION

Counsel for the Respondents : Ms.LAKSHMI

The Court made the following :

JUDGMENT:

The learned Counsel appearing for both sides are aggrieved of the order passed by the learned single Judge in W.P.No.16153 of 2002, dated 17-01-2005, though for different reasons.

The learned Counsel for the appellants submits that the learned single Judge has relied on a judgment of this Court reported in 'Land Acquisition Officer-cum-Revenue Divisional Officer, Chevella Division & others vs. Mekala Pandu & others', and the said judgment is under appeal before the Supreme Court. Therefore, this judgment could not have been relied upon, and in any case, no order could have been passed in favour of the respondents-writ petitioners directing grant of compensation to them.

The learned Counsel appearing for the respondents submits that it was not his case before the learned single Judge that the case of the respondents-writ petitioners was covered by Judgment cited supra. As a matter of fact, his case was that the respondents-writ petitioners were not claiming any compensation for the land, they were only claiming compensation for the structures made by them over the abadi village sites. According to him, they were entitled to compensation for structures in terms of Memo No.11496/TGPII(2)/02-3, dated 14-06-2002, and his case was not considered by the learned single Judge.

Both the parties are aggrieved of the order passed by the learned single Judge, though for different reasons.

Therefore, we allow this writ appeal setting aside the order in W.P.No.16152 of 2002, dated 17-01-2005, passed by the learned single Judge and direct that the matter be placed before the learned single Judge, who may decide the same afresh. No costs.

List the writ petition before the learned single Judge after two weeks.
